HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

WISCONSIN WORKS

The Wisconsin Works (W-2) program under current law provides work experience and benefits for low-income custodial parents who are at least 18 years old. Additionally, under a W-2 program known as Wisconsin Shares, an individual who is the parent of a child under the age of 13 or, if the child is disabled, under the age of 19, may receive a child care subsidy if the individual needs child care services to participate in various educational or work activities and satisfies other eligibility criteria. Under current law, counties set the maximum rates, which are approved by DCF, at which child care providers who provide services under Wisconsin Shares are reimbursed for their services.

Currently, DCF may modify an individual child care provider's reimbursement rate on the basis of the child care provider's quality rating under the quality rating plan known as Youngstar. Current law allows DCF to increase the maximum reimbursement rate for a provider who receives a four-star rating by up to 5 percent. Under this bill, DCF may increase the maximum reimbursement rate for a provider who receives a four-star rating by up to 10 percent.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. 49.155 (6) (e) 3. d. of the statutes is amended to read:
- 2 49.155 (6) (e) 3. d. For a child care provider who receives a 4-star rating, the
- 3 department may increase the maximum reimbursement rate by up to ~~5~~¹⁰ percent.
